

One Health in the 406

TUBERCULOSIS

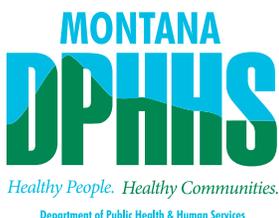

We invite you to participate in a virtual conference discussing zoonotic implications of bovine tuberculosis.

TOPICS:

The biology of TB in people and animals • Epidemiology of TB in the US and in Montana • Other states' experiences with zoonotic TB cases • Occupational health considerations • TB in wildlife reservoirs • History of TB in the US and in MT • Whole genome sequencing technology • Food safety

Register online at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/CHL5T9Y>

Presentations will be made available to registrants beginning October 1st, 2020 and will be accessible anytime through December 31st, 2020. Following registration, a link to view the presentations will be provided via email.

Interested audiences:
Veterinarians, physicians, public health professionals, laboratory personnel, veterinary technicians, nurses, epidemiologists

